APEX's 6th Annual Community Leaders Reception

What are the issues today that can inspire and bring together the diverse segments of the API community? What are leaders and activists from different backgrounds doing to advance the interests of the API community? What should APIs be thinking about and working on right now and what tools are at our disposal? These are just a few of the topics our distinguished panel of experts will be covering in this year's theme, "Next Steps: The Future Direction of the Asian American Community."

Save the date for this exciting event which combines a networking reception together with inspirational speakers on fascinating and important topics affecting the Asian and Pacific Islander community. Our CLR last year was a huge success with over 450 people in attendance.
