About NAAAP-LA (www.naaapla.org):

The NAAAP-LA Vision:

To be the premier leadership development organization in Los Angeles County

The Los Angeles venture chapter of the National Association of Asian American Professionals is an all-volunteer, Pan-Asian American, professional organization that promotes the career advancement and leadership development of Asian American professionals in all fields through networking, respecting Asian multiculturalism, and supporting diversity and community service.

As part of a national organization, NAAAP is the largest and fastest growing Asian American professional organization in the U.S. and Canada. Through its committees, members can participate in many activities that joins other Asian American professionals in community service, professional development and networking activities, just to name a few.

The largest community-based private, non-profit Chinese American health and human services organization in Southern California. Founded in 1971, CSC assists over 10,000 unduplicated immigrants and other individuals, 85% of low-to-moderate income, annually in three major program areas: A Federally Qualified Community Health Center, Community Economic Development Department, and Family and Community Services.

CSC promotes greater community collaboration and partnerships to assist underserved populations in achieving their American dream.
