

eliminating racism empowering women
ywca

The YWCA Pasadena-
Foothill Valley Presents

2012 Women's Leadership and Networking Day

Friday May 4, 2012 8am-3pm

Western Justice Center Maxwell House

55 South Grand Avenue, Pasadena, CA

Join us for an exciting day of leadership development and networking from diverse ethnic/cultural perspectives, including an update on the current status of the Equal Pay Act by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

Featuring:

Congressman Adam Schiff
California 29th District

Councilmember Jacque Robinson
Pasadena District 1

Hyepin Im
President, Korean Churches for Community Development
US Presidential Appointee
Board Member of Corporation for National and Community Service

Jodi Walker, President of Success Alliances www.jodiwalker.com

Entrepreneurial Thinking® for Leaders

Dr. Tonia Causey-Bush, President/CEO Sacred Sistahs Inc.
www.sacredsistahsinc.org
Leadership that Transforms the Spirit: A Reflective Practice on the Integration of Character Building and Virtue in Leading Others

Carolina Morgan, Director, Marketing and Career Development, Total Education Solutions
Leadership for Women: Aligning Your Life with Your Vision

Dr. Pauline Arneberg, Professor, Cal State University Northridge and Independent Organization Development Consultant

Brain Fit to Lead

Dr. Christine Oh, Government Policy Researcher
The Power of Mentoring Youth and Leading through Community Partnerships

PURCHASE TICKETS ONLINE AT www.ywca.org/womensleadership

$50 Ticket Includes Continental Breakfast and Lunch. Proceeds from this event will benefit the YWCA Pasadena-Foothill Valley, Federal Tax ID 95-1644059. For more information contact info@ywca-pasadena.org

Event sponsored in part by The California Wellness Foundation

The
California Wellness Foundation